September 2007 Newsletter

It has been an eventful 6 months for Luke.

On April 21st, Luke turned 18 years old!

At the end of April, Luke and his band Mulholland Drive headlined a sold out show to fans, who crowded into guitar icon Jeff Healey's club to hear Luke entertain for a 2 1/2 hour show. The gig, was also a benefit for the Bacchus Foundation, dedicated to educating students on the responsible use of alcohol and drugs.

The show was a resounding success and raised $2,000 for a good cause.

In June, Luke graduated high school from Canada's prestigious Upper Canada College, but not before Lukes Jazz Band Captured the GOLD medal!

Over the summer, Luke and his band opened for Canadian Rock Icons April Wine, Lover Boy and Trooper (catch Lukes latest live performances on this website under LIVE)

Luke was busy in the studio recording 8 new songs (this new album is featured on the website under MUSIC)

In September, Luke moved to Boston where he is attending the reputable Berklee Music College. In Boston, Luke will be studying guitar, music, english and philosophy. In addition, Luke will be assembling a new line up for Mulholland Drive with some Berklee players and will be giging up and down the east coast colleges, universities and clubs.

So watch for any new dates on the LIVE section of the website.

With such diverse musical influences and stimuli, should be an exciting year for Luke
And fans of his music.
